that if BUNDY was sentenced to Angola Prison, which BUNDY knew was likely, [redacted] and [redacted] would make life difficult for BUNDY. [redacted] alleged that [redacted] and [redacted] beat up BUNDY on a Monday, that BUNDY had a visitor on the next Wednesday, and that on the following day, Thursday, BUNDY was separated from the other men and that BUNDY subsequently testified against SHAW at the preliminary hearing. [redacted] alleged that after BUNDY testified the rumor in the Orleans Parish Prison was that BUNDY had made up the story of seeing SHAW and OSWALD together in order to get a deal from GARRISON. (2) [redacted] alleged that the rumor was that BUNDY had started to formulate his story by testing out two versions on some of the inmates. One version was that BUNDY related to some of the inmates that BUNDY had seen SHAW and OSWALD together in front of a department store on Canal Street while BUNDY was waiting for a bus. The other version was the one that BUNDY testified to at the preliminary hearing. [redacted] alleged that BUNDY never spoke to him about the different versions. [redacted] refused to say who BUNDY spoke to about the two versions. [redacted] stated that although one inmate [redacted] refused to give the identity of the inmate) in the prison has alleged that BUNDY started to put together his story before [redacted] and [redacted] beat up BUNDY, it was [redacted] opinion that the testing plus the anticipated fact that BUNDY would get at Angola from [redacted] and [redacted] was very instrumental in causing BUNDY to testify against SHAW. In return for this, BUNDY wanted GARRISON to keep BUNDY out of Angola Prison and away from [redacted] and [redacted]

[redacted] stated that VERNON BUNDY had made a deal with District Attorney GARRISON which caused BUNDY to testify against SHAW at the preliminary hearing. [redacted] stated that [redacted] colored male, [redacted] date of birth [redacted] 1936, and [redacted] colored male, [redacted] date of birth December [redacted] 1942, were arrested by the New Orleans Police Department on January 25, 1966, for burglary. [redacted] received 14 years and [redacted] received 9 years in the Louisiana State Penitentiary in Orleans Parish Criminal Court on March 8, 1967. [redacted] and [redacted] claimed that if VERNON BUNDY had testified in their behalf at the trial, [redacted] and [redacted] would not have been convicted. [redacted] and [redacted] claimed they were innocent of the burglary charge. [redacted] alleged that at the trial of [redacted] and [redacted] BUNDY was in the Central Lockup on a different charge but for some reason did not testify in behalf of [redacted] and [redacted] even though there was a subpoena for BUNDY to testify at the trial of [redacted] and [redacted] alleged that subsequent to the trial of [redacted] and [redacted] for burglary, BUNDY was moved from the New Orleans Police Department, Central Lockup, to the Orleans Parish Prison where [redacted] and [redacted] were being kept prior to their removal to Angola Prison. [redacted] claimed that [redacted] and [redacted] beat up BUNDY when BUNDY was moved from X tier to the 3B tier in the Orleans Parish Prison and that BUNDY knew (1)
